

THE KNEE SOCIETY

Scientific Awards

The Knee Society annually presents three (3) scientific awards for papers submitted from the various training programs or from practicing orthopaedic surgeons, both members and non-members, for presentation at the Specialty Day Meeting of The Knee Society (during the AAOS Annual Meeting).

Top 3 papers are selected for the following awards:

- The Chitranjan S. Ranawat, MD Award (with a $1,000 honorarium).
- The John N. Insall, MD Award (with a $1,000 honorarium).
- The Mark B. Coventry, MD Award (with a $1,000 honorarium).

Any and all of these awards are granted at the discretion of the Education Committee of The Knee Society.

The deadline to submit a full manuscript in consideration for an award is December 1, 2018.

The presenting author of each winning paper will receive an honorarium and a certificate. His or her co-authors will receive copies of certificate.

Instructions to Contenders

Submitted papers must:

- Be blinded.
- Highlight quality basic science or clinical research specifically related to the knee joint.
- Be completely original work and not be published in whole or in part in any journal or via electronic media platform.
- May be previously presented, in whole or in part, if the new submission represents an important contribution.
